

GOOD NEWS.

A Duty on Sugar and Our Treaty Safe.

The back Albert arrived this morning with six days' later news from the Coast. She brings a confirmation of the good news predicted in the GAZETTE. The revised tariff bill has been submitted to the Senate. It fixes a duty of about 1 1/2 cents per pound on sugars testing 96 per cent., the duty on sugars polarizing 80 per cent. being fixed at 1 cent, with a graduating rising scale from that point up. It is proposed to insert a clause abrogating all the reciprocity treaties except that with Hawaii, and to strike out the clause which was intended to terminate the Hawaiian treaty.

Rear Admiral Walker has been ordered to Honolulu to replace Admiral Irwin, who retires. It is said this is to counteract a rumored movement to establish a British protectorate, Admiral Walker being an officer in whom great confidence is placed.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Anglican Church Chronicle is out.

April 21st is the last day of registration.

The Government school children are enjoying a two weeks' vacation.
